

EL SEGUNDO MEETS TARTARS HERE TOMORROW

TORRANCE HAS CHANCE TO AVENGE LAST YEAR'S TIE; LOCAL TEAM SHOULD WIN

Eager to seek vengeance upon the team which tied them 19-19 last year in the final few minutes of play, the Torrance Tartars will exhibit their wares on their own field here tomorrow, Friday, afternoon against El Segundo.

This second game in the local's Marine League schedule should result in a victory for the Tartars. Coach Earl Fields has what is generally considered the potentially-best team developed at the high school in five years. Because of their favorable showing against Narbonne last week, Fields' Coach Comand's eleven to the Tartars have given every indication that they can win at least three games this year.

Polish Off Rough Ends Tomorrow's game will start at 2:30 p. m. There is ample seating accommodations at the high school field and Torrance fans should turn out for the encounter in greater numbers than in the past.

During the week, Fields has been polishing off the rough ends that developed during the Narbonne game. He has been speeding up the signal handlers—the cause of three five-yard penalties for the Tartars.

Who's Who On Tartar Eleven

Seven Reasons Pictured Why Torrance Should Defeat El Segundo Here Tomorrow

Here are seven reasons why Torrance should defeat El Segundo tomorrow. The serious looking croucher down there in the lower right corner is not to be considered as a Tartar in this lineup as he is Bert Merrill, last year's captain, who is now playing end on the U. C. L. A. freshman squad.

Guy Rowell, a substitute left end, who is a sophomore. Rowell may or may not get in the game tomorrow.

Leroy Thompson, a senior, who is playing left end on the first string.

Jimmy McLean, quarterback. He has another year at T. H. S. See him in action against the El Segundo eleven.

Leo Sweeney, who plays a half, is showing some real stuff this year. He is a senior.

Milton Everett, center, is one of the Tartars' main threats. As a sophomore he is headed for an All-Marine selection in a couple of years.

Captain Herman Hammond is the star tackle on the Torrance eleven. He is a junior with another year to play.

Dick Mason, another Tartar tackle, should do things tomorrow. He is a senior.

Bert Merrill is at U. C. L. A. this year.

"Moral" Victory For Torrance In First Grid Game

Narbonne High Only Defeats Local Eleven, 13-6, At Lomita

By Wilson Page

In the first Marine League game of the season, Narbonne High school defeated Torrance High school, 13 to 6, last Friday in what was the closest of any game played between the two schools during a five-year period. In fact, the game may be considered a "moral" victory for Torrance for two reasons: (1) it was the narrowest margin of defeat administered by the Lomita school to the local institution in the six years they have met; and (2) it was the first time Torrance scored on Narbonne in three years.

Back in 1926 the "big" game between the two rivals ended in a 7 to 0 win for Narbonne. In 1928 the Tartars scored eight points to the Gauchos' 19 and since then Narbonne has beaten the local school by overwhelming odds.

Last Minute Score Starting off in the first period, Torrance advanced the ball down to Narbonne's 20-yard line by a series of line plunges. At that point a pass intercepted by a Narbonne player who returned it to Torrance's 40-yard line. After several line bucks and end runs, the ball was carried across by Angelich, Narbonne right end. He also made the extra point on a line buck.

The other score was made by Williams, fullback, during the early part of the second quarter. During the second half, Torrance exhibited a much stronger offense and defense than they had shown previously. Until late in the fourth quarter the team asserted entire control of the game with an occasional touchdown in the last minute of play when a pass over the goal line from Atchison to Pflugh was completed.

AND THE FIRST of those "three victory" games is due tomorrow when Torrance entertains El Segundo "at home." The attention of local fans who have consistently remained away from high school games here because the Torrance eleven always ended on the short end of the score, is respectfully called to this game respectively. It is entirely likely that the Tartars will turn in their first win at this encounter—and it behooves increased adult attendance at the meeting.

THE DIFFICULT FEAT of patting yourself on your back is being accomplished—and with great success—this week by Sidellner and his talented group of brainy guys who announce the above report on their football result pickings to date. Last week, out of 19 games, correct answers, missed six results and failed to tally with the two tie games—Northwestern-Notre Dame and North Carolina-Florida.

IT MIGHT BE mentioned, and it is mentioned, that Bob Lewellen was the only dooper to call the result of the Oregon-Washington game. The rest of the result-roosters, all seven of 'em, heralded a Washington win.

FOR THE FIRST time in three years, a Torrance High school team scored on a Narbonne eleven when the Tartars won a "moral" victory last Friday by holding the Gauchos to a 13-6 score. That indicates that the local gridsters have something this year which may yet bear out Coach Earl Fields' expressed opinion that his team will win three games this year.

AND THE FIRST of those "three victory" games is due tomorrow when Torrance entertains El Segundo "at home." The attention of local fans who have consistently remained away from high school games here because the Torrance eleven always ended on the short end of the score, is respectfully called to this game respectively. It is entirely likely that the Tartars will turn in their first win at this encounter—and it behooves increased adult attendance at the meeting.

TWO INTERESTING REPORTS on first games in the Marine League last Friday tell about: Riis coming to life to win its first victory by trimming South Gate, 6-0. Moore, all Marine League end last year, dashed around end for a 65-yard run for a touchdown in the closing minutes of the game to produce the only score.

By chalking up a touchdown in the last 15 seconds of play, Coach Bill Smith's Leuzinger eleven nosed out the Banning squad, 7-0 at the Leuzinger field.

BEFORE YOU PLACE any francs on games this week-end, consult the following tabulation. Here, you get the real dope as compiled by seven seers who have made the enviable record reported at the head of this column. This is what they predict will happen this week-end:

Torrance to enter the win list over El Segundo. (Unanimous.) U. S. C. will take Oregon. (One objector who shall be nameless because he said his wife is strong for So. Cal.) Northwestern to send U. C. L. Stanford to dump O. S. C. (Still unanimous—the boys are getting good.) California-W. S. C. A. bloc in

Ducats For Big Game On Sale

Legion Sponsors Armistice Day Classic

Excellent seats, right on the 95-yard line, are being sold by Torrance Legionnaires for the Legion-sponsored St. Mary's-U. C. L. A. game at the Olympic Stadium, Armistice Day, November 11, Robert J. Deininger is in charge of the ticket sale here.

"The proceeds of this game are to be divided three ways," he said this week. "St. Mary's gets a third, U. C. L. A. gets a third, and the Legion's welfare fund gets the remainder."

In addition to the game there will be a mammoth parade, drum and bugle corps exhibitions, band concerts, entertainment and special feature numbers. The Torrance post will have its supply of tickets available to the general public until November 1.

TORRANCE WINS A Torrance hardball team, recruited by R. E. Budge, defeated a Redondo team, 6 to 3, Sunday at the beach city.

CLUBMEN WIN LOMITA.—The Los Angeles Commercial Club got 15 hits off Yelovich and McCasland Sunday and 12 runs. Yelovich got the only home run of the day and Lomita went down to defeat with seven runs. The Los Angeles Nippon, rated a crack team, will play Lomita next Sunday.

Few Schedules Left Only a few more Marine League schedule cards are available to local football fans at the Torrance Herald office. If you want to keep up with the teams, get your copy at once.
